

Free Overnight in an Overwater Bungalow—a US$1,775 value!*

Enjoy the cruise of a lifetime as you explore Tahiti, French Polynesia, and the South Pacific aboard the m/s Paul Gauguin—the luxury ship that was just named a Gold Magellan Award Winner in the Small Cruise Ship category by Travel Weekly.

And, if you book Category B or above, instead of spending the night aboard ship in Bora Bora, you can experience the island's dramatic splendor from a FREE overwater villa at one of the island's most luxurious hotels: the InterContinental Bora Bora Resort & Thalasso Spa. Admire the colorful underwater life of the lagoon through glass tabletops right in your villa, enjoy a classic Polynesian décor, and relax to the music of Mother Nature. Booking deadline is October 31, 2010!

Only four sailings qualify for this special offer:

Society Islands & Tuamotus

10-night voyage: January 5, 2011
 From only US$7,397
 10-night voyage: March 16, 2011
 From only US$7,597

Tahiti & the Society Islands

7-night voyage: February 26, 2011
 From only US$6,497

Cook Islands & Society Islands

11-night voyage: March 5, 2011
 From only US$8,347

Enjoy 50% savings off standard cruise fares plus FREE airfare from Los Angeles!

Overwater bungalow availability is extremely limited and available strictly on a first-come, first-served basis. Call today!

5575

For reservations call 1-800-848-6172
 or visit www.pgcruses.com.

*Select departures only. Available only with category B and above, and only while space lasts. Combinable with other offers. New bookings only. Offer expires October 31, 2010. Prices shown reflect savings. Government fees & taxes additional. rates are per person and based on double occupancy.